

County Planning Connection August 2021 News

First Release of U.S. Census 2020 Data

On August 12, 2021, the U.S. Census Bureau released the first Census 2020 results to the public through the release of redistricting data (a.k.a. Public Law 94-171 data).

The Livingston County Planning Department has processed the data for all 20 Livingston County communities (County, Township, City and Village geography) in easy to read tables with an accompanying trend analysis provided for each table. The tables can be found on the County Planning website at:

<https://www.livgov.com/plan/>

The Census 2020 tables on the County Planning website include:

- Population
- Population Estimates (SEMOG estimates with Census 2020 data)
- Housing Units
- Housing Unit Estimates (SEMOG estimates with Census 2020 data)
- Households
- Household Estimates (SEMOG estimates with Census 2020 data)

Check the website often as additional tables will be added, including:

- Population by Race
- Occupancy Status for Housing Units (occupied or vacant)
- Household size
- Voting Age Population (18 and older)
- Group Quarters Population

TREND:

During the 2010 - 2020 decade Livingston County's population growth has slowed compared to previous decades, with a percent growth of 7.1% compared to a 15.3% growth in the previous 2000 -2010 decade.

We are hopeful that this will help you with your strategic planning efforts!

New Deadline for Livingston County Amendments

The Livingston County Planning Department is changing its deadline for the receipt of Zoning, Master Plan and P.A. 116 Farmland Amendments. No longer will the deadline date be on a Friday. The deadline will now be two (2) weeks in advance of a Livingston County Planning Commission meeting. This time frame will allow County Planning Staff a minimum of one week to review amendment cases (instead of the current minimum 5 day period) before mailing them to Livingston County Planning Commissioners. For your convenience, the deadline dates for the remaining 2021 months will be as follows:

September 1	October 6	November 3	December 1
--------------------	------------------	-------------------	-------------------

Thank you in advance for your flexibility regarding this change in deadline!
